
John GIBSON

John Walker Gibson Resident of Sunnyvale July 9, 1945 - June 28, 2010 John passed away at the VA Palo Alto on Monday, June 28, 2010 due to complications from lung disease. John is survived his son Shane Gibson, daughter Carrie Gibson, and many friends. John was born in Yuba City, CA and served in Germany as an Army medic during the end of the Vietnam War. John worked tirelessly and enthusiastically for Jobs & Careers, a publication of the Bay Area News Group, for 18 years. His two main passions in life were photography and helping others. John attended Brooks Institute of Photography in Santa Barbara and pursued his photography hobby for over 40 years. He enjoyed the outdoors, music, Christianity and people.

John lived every day to it's fullest. His selfless contributions to those he cared about are immeasurable. John leaves behind a wealth of friends and coworkers that cherish the time they shared with him. As a friend and mentor he always made time to offer a sympathetic ear, words of encouragement, open arms and a loving heart. He started his days with prayer and meditation so that he could be of service and give freely to others. John, you will always be with us in a fellowship of Spirit. You will surely meet some of us as we trudge the road to Happy Destiny. Until then, may God bless and keep you. Happy birthday, John. We will miss you. A memorial service will be held at St. Luke Lutheran Church, 1025 The Dalles Avenue, Sunnyvale CA 94087, Saturday, July 10, 2010 at 3 pm. A potluck reception immediately follows.

Published in Contra Costa Times on July 8, 2010
